

LAN GEN. HUERTA'S ELIMINATION AND PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT IN MEXICO

Mediators' Plan Is to Be Proposed for Solution of Entire Mexican Problem

COMMISSION OF FIVE

Temporary Government May Be Proposed for Commission
Composed of Five Persons

NOT ACCEPTABLE TO REBELS

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Elimination of General Huerta and the establishment of a provisional government in Mexico in which both the rebels and the Constitutionalists factions would be represented is contemplated in a plan which the three American mediators now are working out to be proposed for the solution of the entire Mexican problem.

This, the first intimation as to the details of the mediation plans, became known tonight, though neither the mediators nor state department officials would make any statement as to how nearly complete is the plan being submitted to the American and Mexican delegates when they meet the South American envoys at Niagara Falls, Canada, next Monday. It was learned that the proposal might be that the setting up of a temporary government be undertaken by a commission composed of five persons two of them to be named by Huerta, two by the Constitutionalists and the fifth by the mediators.

While the mediators have withdrawn their invitation to the Constitutionalists to send delegates to their conference, it is generally believed that information is being sought as to whether the Constitutionalists could consent in case of the elimination of Huerta to some term of some temporary government in which he could be represented. Those close to the mediators say it is believed that some such arrangement as this is the only possible one under which peace may be restored in Mexico under conditions satisfactory to all Mexican factions and to the United States.

Since the recent withdrawal of the invitation to send delegates to the Niagara Falls conference, no efforts have been made by the mediators to have the Constitutionalists and representatives and it has been asserted positively in authoritative quarters that none will be made, nevertheless, it is known that the peace envoys intend to consider the Constitutionalists side of the problem in their plan and therefore would elicit information as to their attitude in case of a possible elimination of Huerta.

Not Acceptable to Rebels.

El Paso, Texas, May 12.—The plan for the pacification of Mexico now being worked out by the South American mediators and which is it is announced would eliminate Huerta and establish a provisional government in which both the adherents of Huerta and the Constitutionalists would be represented will not be acceptable to the Constitutionalists, according to institutionalist officers here.

They will agree to nothing less than a complete elimination not only of Huerta, but of his entire party, they declare that the ousting of Huerta, the individual would be but an empty victory unless the system for which they say Huerta and his followers stand were to be abolished absolutely.

"Why should we compromise with him?" said Roberto V. Pasquella, confidential agent of General Carranza here. "We have beaten Huerta at every turn and why should we yield our advantage when we have the reforms for which we have almost within our grasp? This has been a fight of a hundred years and we will not be content to have years of fighting wasted."

Summoned By Pope.

Vera Cruz, May 12.—The most ex. Jose Mora del Rio, arch-bishop of Mexico and the Right Rev. Jesus Maria Eschavarria, bishop of Saltillo reached here today on a train loaded with refugees. The archbishop and bishop are on their way to Rome to lay before the pope the facts in the Mexican situation. It is estimated that the archbishop has been summoned by the pope. Whether he will recommend the pope any line of action is considered doubtful, but he is convinced that the pontiff would use his high office to effect a lasting peace.

The archbishop let it be known here that he has grave fears regarding the fate of thousands of non-combatants in the capital and expressed his belief that if the Zapata forces entered the capital there would be rioting and looting.

vention, as he was convinced that that was the only means to restore and maintain peace in Mexico.

The alleged determination of Villa to deal severely with the dignitaries of the church and the disfavor with which the rebels, both north and south, regard all those who wear the robes of the church, are said to have for a basis the financial assistance which the church has extended to Huerta.

Silliman Released.
Mexico City, May 12.—Acting Foreign Minister Ruiz today telegraphed the South American mediators at Washington that American Vice-Consul Silliman, under arrest at Saltillo charged with aiding the rebels, had been ordered sent to Mexico City under guard to be delivered to the Brazilian minister for return to the United States.

Bombardment Continues.
Washington, May 12.—Bombardment of Tampico by constitutionalist artillery still was in progress at 9:30 o'clock tonight according to a relayed wireless report to the navy department from Rear-Admiral Badger. German and Dutch cruisers, which had been in the river withdrew during the day.

ANOTHER ELECTRICAL STORM STRIKES CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Worst of Storm Is Felt at Kittanning in the Allegheny Valley—Many Persons Injured.

Pittsburgh, May 12.—The second wind, rain and electrical storm in less than 24 hours struck Pittsburgh tonight injuring scores of persons, many of them probably fatally and doing hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage.

The worst of the storm was felt at Kittanning, Pa., in the Allegheny Valley, 30 miles from here. There many persons were caught by flying debris when wind unroofed two factories, an apartment house and slightly damaged thirty or forty other buildings. The loss is estimated at $25,000. A number of the injured are suffering broken backs, fractured skulls and internal injuries and are not expected to recover.

Two of the Injured Die.
Two of the injured at Kittanning died tonight.

One man was electrified in this city and a number of persons hurt. Windows, trees, smoke-stacks and wires fell prey to the terrific winds. McKeesport, an adjoining city recovering from last night's storm suffered a second time tonight. The damage there is over $50,000. A score of persons were injured.

FIVE MILLION DOLLARS ADDED TO ASSESSMENT ROLLS THIS YEAR

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 12.—It is estimated by State Auditor Brady that approximately $5,000,000 will be added to the assessment rolls this year as the result of the auditor's circular to local assessors to assess automobiles and other goods in the hands of agents. According to the auditor quite a number of assessors have reported that car loads of automobiles have been held on railroad tracks until April 2nd or 3rd, at which time the agent took up the drafts that were drawn against the shipments, and in this way attempted to avoid listing the property. Upon refusal of owners to schedule such property a penalty of fifty per cent on the valuation is ordered.

SECRETARY OF STATE BUREAU OF LABOR ACCOUNTS SHORT $3,900

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 12.—The end of the investigation of the books of Patrick M. Hart, secretary of the state bureau of labor here today indicated a shortage of $3,900. Hart disappeared about two months ago and has not been heard of since. He was appointed by Governor Dunne pending an examination by the civil service commission.

Hart was recommended by State Labor organizations. The state will lose nothing, owing to the fact that Hart was under $10,000 bonds by the Chicago Bonding company.

SHRINERS AT ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Ga., May 12.—Resplendent in oriental costumes and headed by the bands of the various temples 20,000 members of the Mystic Shrine here for the meeting of the Imperial council of the fraternity tonight marched in the annual night pageant of the order. The Imperial council held its first meeting today. Tomorrow it is expected that the place for the 1915 meeting and the selection of an Imperial outer guard, the only officer to be selected will be determined.

"WHITE SLAVER" ELECTED.
Cheyenne, Wyo., May 12.—Roy Montgomery, convicted under the Mann white slave act a few months ago was elected mayor of Gillette today by a vote of 111 to 80.

Montgomery is at liberty under an appeal bond. The issue in the election was the question of his innocence.

Governor Issues

PROCLAMATION.
Springfield, Ills., May 12.—Governor Dunne today issued a proclamation designating Saturday, May 30th as Memorial Day and urging its general observance throughout the state.

FRANCHISES ACTED UPON BY THE CITY COUNCIL

First Reading Has Now Been Given
All the Utility Measures—One Dollar Gas and Eight Cent
Electricity Provided For.

The city council made such headway yesterday with the utility franchise matters that the first reading of the gas ordinance was completed and a first reading was also given to the electric franchise. Next Monday the council can legally give the railway franchise a second reading and next Tuesday can take like action with reference to both the gas and electric franchises. Then, as previously, the company will have five days within which to signify their acceptance of the franchises. If this acceptance is filed in the form of a manner prescribed by law, it will then become the duty of the council to call an election for the action of the people at large.

The gas ordinance, or franchise, is most lengthy of the three and comprises about thirty typewritten pages. One dollar is specified as the maximum price for gas and the company is permitted to render bills at a price which may exceed this figure by 15 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, but on such bills, paid within ten days, a discount of 15 cents shall be allowed. The company is required to file each year statements of its full financial condition as related to stocks and bonds and the figures to show the exact amount of gas sold. Full provision is made for the form in which this statement must be made.

The Right of Purchase.
Another provision that the city shall have the right of purchase at any time during the life of the franchise by paying for the property the sum of its alleged physical value plus 10 per cent. The greater part of the ordinance, however, relates to the quality of gas to be furnished and the system for testing the same and also for testing meters. The provisions are such that apparatus must be maintained at the plant for testing the quality and pressure of gas and which shall be at all times open to the city and authority is also given the city to establish an inspection plant at the city hall. Provision is made for inspections of meters found to be defective, to be charged against the company. It is also provided that where a test of a meter shows that the quality of the gas is 2 per cent below standard that rebates shall be given the consumer for a period not exceeding six months.

The whole matter of gas efficiency is gone into thoroughly and somewhat technically.

Eight Cent Electricity.
The electric light franchise is not nearly so long as the gas ordinance and the public will probably be more largely interested in the rates provided than in any other of the sections. By the terms of this franchise the maximum rates for electricity will be 8 cents, instead of 13 cents as is now charged. The maximum business rate will be 7 cents and the maximum power rate 5 cents. The whole schedule of rates is the same as now enforced in Hannibal and is identical with that provided in the ordinance which the city council adopted some months ago fixing the rates for commercial lighting.

The rates in the proposed franchise are in detail as follows:
Residence Rate.
Base rate 8 cents per kilowatt hour. Discounts if paid before the tenth of the month; less than $1 no discount; $1 to $5 ten per cent discount; $5 to $10 inclusive, 20 per cent discount; all current in excess of $10, gross of 6 cents net.

Business Rate.
One to two hundred kw. 7 cents; 200 to 400 kw. per month 6 cents; 400 to 600 kw. per month 5 cents; 600 to 1,000 kw. per month, 4 cents; 1,000 kw. and over, 3 cents.

Power Rate.
One to 100 kw. 5 cents; 101 to 200, 4 cents; 201 to 500, 3 cents; 501 to 1,000, 2 cents; 1,001 to 2,000, 2.4 cents; 2,001 to 4,000, 2.2 cents; 4,001 to 10,000, 2 cents; 1,001 to 50,000, 1.5 cents; 50,000 and over 1 cent.

MR. COLTON HONORED.
J. Herbert Colton has recently been honored as president of the Northwestern Educational Association. He will remain for his fourth year as superintendent of the Tower schools at Tower, North Dakota. Mr. Colton is a graduate of Illinois college of the class of 1911. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Colton of Woodstock.

TO ATTEND DEDICATION.
Members of the Knights of Columbus are planning to go to Hannibal next Sunday to attend dedication of the new K. of C. hall there which is a gift of Mr. Schultz. If one hundred and fifty can be secured a special train will be chartered, each paying a dollar for the round trip.

WILL ATTEND POST FUNERAL.
Miss Florence Ward will leave this morning for Battle Creek, Mich., called by the death of her cousin, C. W. Post. The remains will arrive from California Thursday evening and the funeral will be held Friday.

THE BIRTH RECORD.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Henderson of Arcadia, at 12:30 this (Wednesday) morning, an eight pound daughter Georgia Bernice Henderson.

Centerville, Iowa, May 12.—Clyde Bradley, the ten year old son of Lawrence Bradley, living near Numa, Iowa, was killed by lightning while at play, according to information here today.

Passed bills to elevate American legations to Chile and Argentine to embassies.

Began debate on annual diplomatic and consular appropriation bill carrying $4,496,202.

Representative Bulkeley after sessions of joint sub-committee on credits.

Adjourned at 5:08 p. m., until noon Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—House Democrats in caucus tonight voted to limit the legislative program for the remainder of this session to anti-trust measures and appropriation bills. Rural credits will go over until next winter.

Of the 230 members who attended the caucus not more than 24 voted against the program. Majority Leader Underwood outlined the plans of the administration and explained that the work of the session was being curtailed "in the hope of an adjournment by July 10th."

President Wilson had suggested to house leaders who called upon him earlier in the evening that he attempt to be made to pass rural credits during the present session.

The caucus voted to have the house devote the next two weeks to consideration of the anti-trust bills—the Covington inter-state commission bill, the Clayton anti-trust bill and the Reubyn measures for federal control of railroad's security issues. Then the appropriation bills are to be taken up. The prohibition and woman suffrage proposed constitutional amendments were not considered by the caucus, on the ground that they were not party measures. The action of the caucus, however, does not preclude their consideration in the house if they are reached after the program as arranged has been disposed of.

In presenting the administration plan Mr. Underwood said the president had counted upon inclusion of rural credits because of pledges in the party platform but that with the banking and currency committee absolutely unable to agree it was impracticable to make it a fixed part of the program for the present session.

Will Be Slow in Reaching Vote.

It became apparent today that the senate cannot reach a vote on the proposed repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama canal act for at least ten days or two weeks unless Democratic leaders made an extraordinary effort to speed up the proceedings. Half a dozen senators have announced their intention to speak on the tolls questions and several gave similar notice today.

It is probable that fifteen will have to be heard before the vote can be taken and under the present arrangement with only one senator speaking each day, action on the repeal bill is still some distance on the future.

In the three hours it gave to tolls today, the senate listened to a speech by Senator Smith who favors repeal and to a debate between Senators Borah and Williams.

Senator Borah contended that Great Britain had not to this day yielded its interpretation of the treaty governing the well and canal, but had withdrawn its discrimination against the United States commerce merely as a matter of business to protect its own commerce from retaliatory measures. He said the contention of Great Britain that the time that the treaty enabled it to discriminate was still on file in the state department.

Senator Williams declared that Senator Borah denounced Canada's attempted bad faith in the well and canal incident as a sort of defense for the same action on the part of

FORMER LEADERS OF NEW HAVEN MAY NOT BE CALLED TO TESTIFY

Attorney General McReynolds Disapproves of the Examination of Rockefeller, Mellen and Others at This Time.

Washington, May 12.—Indications loomed large tonight that Charles S. Mellen, former president and William Cass Ledyard, William Rockefeller, George Baker and George McCullough Miller, directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad would not be called upon to testify in the inquiry by the inter-state commerce commission into the financial operations of the New Haven and the Billard company.

Attorney General McReynolds, while declining to make any statement concerning his attitude towards the examination of these witnesses, informed Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the commission that he disapproved of it at this time. It is known too, that members of the commission doubt the advisability of putting these witnesses on the stand, lest the evidence they give should render them immune from any prosecution that might be considered necessary. Mr. Ledyard attended today's sessions of the inquiry and, late in the afternoon participated in a lively verbal tilt with William B. Lawrence, of Boston, one of the witnesses which represents the largest individual holdings of Boston and Maine stock. Mr. Lawrence said that his family's holdings of Boston and Maine stock had depreciated nearly $1,500,000 since the absorption of the Boston and Maine by the New Haven.

Mr. Ledyard challenged the accuracy of Mr. Lawrence's evidence concerning a plan of the late J. Pierpont Morgan to effect a general consolidation of railroads and express companies. He was promised an opportunity to be heard later.

STRIKE BREAKERS DEPORTED
WHEN THEY APPLY FOR WORK

Union Leaders in Aguilar District Praise U. S. Officers, Declaring They Have Confidence of Strikers as Well as Operators.

Trinidad, Colo., May 12.—Five strike breakers were deported by the United States military at Aguilar today when they applied for work in the Royal Mine.

Concerning the condition in the Aguilar district, P. E. Quinn, union leader stated tonight:

"The United States officers have won and held the trust and faith of the strikers as well as the operators. The strikers have been treated fairly and that treatment has done more toward inducing the men to surrender their arms than all our talking could have done."

At Ludlow back of the site of the old tent colony the first white canvases was spread today. Streets were laid out and everything put in condition for the removal, soon as possible.

Surrender of guns continued, except in the Aguilar district where a number have been received. Peace reigns throughout the Southern Colorado district and union officials, mine operators and citizens today expressed the opinion that this condition would continue.

Will Convene Today.
Denver, Colo., May 12.—The general court martial called by Adjutant General John Chase upon recommendation of the military commission that investigated the Ludlow battle and fire of April 20th, will convene tomorrow.

The court is authorized to try all officers and members of the Colorado national guard upon charges growing out of the clash between militiamen and strikers as a result of which more than a score of lives were lost.

SOUTH CAROLINA POLITICIAN MURDERS PROMINENT ATTORNEY

Joseph G. Sullivan Shoots John M. Cannon, Judge Advocate on Gov. Bleasde's Staff.

Gray Court, S. C., May 12.—John M. Cannon, judge advocate on Governor Bleasde's staff was shot dead here today by Joseph G. Sullivan, member of a prominent family and a political leader in his section, as a sequel to a quarrel that arose during the trial of Sullivan's brother in a magistrate's court.

Sullivan was arrested and placed in jail. The tragedy occurred only a short distance from the court room. The principals walked away from the court after adjournment and the quarrel that had arisen during the proceedings over Sullivan's brother was renewed.

Cannon was well known as a lawyer and was prominent in politics in Laurins, his home town.

SHREVEPORT NEGRO IS LYNCHED BY MOB OF MEN AND BOYS

SHREVEPORT, La., May 12.—Ed Hamilton, negro, held on the charge of assaulting a ten year old white girl this morning, was taken from the Parish jail shortly after noon and lynched. For three hours a mob of 1,000 men and boys stood in the rain outside the jail doors, hammering away with a heavy railroad iron at the street obstacle that kept them from the negro.

Steel saws were finally used and entrance was gained by the mob.

Senator Williams agreed with Senator Sutherland that the United States could not pay the tolls of its own commercial vessels.

IOWAN SUICIDES RATHER THAN SUBMIT TO ARREST

Grain Dealer of Anamosa Shoots
Himself After a Lively Revolver Battle With Sheriff Who Is Uninjured.

Anamosa, Ia., May 12.—Rather than submit to arrest Tuesday afternoon Henry Nordman shot himself through the head, killing himself almost instantly. The suicide was the culmination of a gun fight on the main street of the town when Sheriff Hogan attempted to place Nordman under arrest. In the fight twelve shots were exchanged between Nordman and Sheriff Hogan. No one was injured in the battle, although Sheriff Hogan had a narrow escape when a bullet buried itself in the trunk of a small tree that stood between the sheriff and the fugitive.

Nordman was charged with uttering a forged instrument, the complainant being a firm of Chicago commission merchants. They charge that Nordman, who was a grain buyer had forged bills of lading.

The information was filed on May 2nd, but the warrant for his arrest was not sworn out until Tuesday afternoon.

Nordman who had lived in Anamosa, and its vicinity nearly all of his life had heard that Sheriff Hogan was looking for him, and was prepared. Sheriff Hogan met him in front of the post office and attempted to make the arrest, but Nordman, drawing a .32-calibre revolver from his pocket, backed away from the sheriff and threatened his life, if he attempted to arrest him. Sheriff Hogan drew his revolver and the two men stood about sixty feet apart.

Sheriff Hogan began to remonstrate with Nordman, trying to talk him out of his rash threat to commit murder, along with his crime of forgery, but the only reply from the fugitive was to fire his revolver at the sheriff.

SHAPIRO'S STORY VARIES FROM THAT OLD AT FIRST TRIAL

Driver of Murder Car Who Attributed Statement to "Dago Frank" Now Says "Whitey Lewis" Made Remark.

New York, May 12.—Counsel for Charles Becker, on trial charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal today obtained an admission from William Shapiro, driver of the gray murder car, that testimony he gave on direct examination at today's session was not the same as that he gave at the trial of the four gunmen. Then, Shapiro, testified, the record shows, that while driving the four gunmen to the Metropole Hotel he heard "Dago Frank" say:

"Everything is all right, Becker has the cops fixed."

Today he testified that it was "Whitey Lewis" who made the remark.

It is expected the admission that he had told two different stories will play an important part in the trial.

WILLIAM MARSHALL KEITH ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE

CHICAGO, May 12.—William Marshall Keith tonight was found not guilty of murdering Walter Paul a butcher, whom he shot to death after learning of Mrs. Keith's fondness for Paul. The jury after five hours deliberation returned a verdict that Keith was insane when he shot Paul but had recovered and was sane now.

Keith's defense was provided by James A. Patten, millionaire grain broker, whose interest Keith aroused by a letter to Mrs. Patten. While in jail awaiting trial, Keith read a newspaper account of Mrs. Patten's interesting herself in another case and wrote to her begging her aid.

Mrs. Patten was in court nearly every day of the trial.

Keith's counsel advanced evidence to show that Keith was a somnambulist and that he killed Paul while walking in his sleep.

KANSAS PRISONER PAROLED TO HARVEST HIS WHEAT CROP

TOPEKA, Kans., May 12.—Governor Hodges today granted a parole for sixty days to W. F. Richards, a prisoner at the state penitentiary, so Richards might go to his home in Saline county and harvest his wheat crop.

Richards entered the prison last January under a sentence from one to five years for selling mortgaged property. He was heavily in debt, and, according to reports to the governor, his family has been dependent upon neighbors. The governor, thereupon decided the family needed Richards' help for the next sixty days, more than did the state.

TIGHT SKIRTS PREVENT WOMEN FROM KNEELING IN PRAYER

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 12.—Tight skirts that prevent women from kneeling in prayer and the craving of young folks for automobiles when they are able to walk, came in for grillings at the meeting of the Minnesota Territorial Pioneers which closed last night. Lack of desire on the part of the present generation to pray also was deplored. Harking back to old days when fellows had to "get out and grub their way," the early settlers drew a glaring comparison with customs of the present times.

POLICEMAN IS KILLED.
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 12.—George Shearer, a policeman was shot and killed and three others, one an officer, were wounded by bullets tonight during a riot at a Hungarian wedding celebration. Steve Papp, alleged to have shot Shearer and twenty seven others are under arrest.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.
New York, May 12.—Solomon Rosener, formerly vice-president of the American Tobacco company and widely interested in the tobacco business, was stricken with apoplexy and died while traveling down town in a surface car today. He was sixty years old.

AGED COURT CLERK DIES.
Ottawa, Ill., May 12.—Alfred H. Taylor, aged 86, for thirty years, clerk of the Illinois supreme court, died today.

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently, does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

GROUP EIGHT BANKERS MET IN JACKSONVILLE

TWELVE COUNTIES WELL REPRESENTED AT THE GATHERING.

Sessions Were Held at Odd Fellows' Temple on East State Street—Col. Buckingham of Chicago Gave Pertinent Suggestions for Corporation Control—"Rainbow Club" Added to Social Features of the Occasion.

Members of group eight of the Illinois Bankers' association held their annual meeting in Jacksonville Tuesday and more than one of the visitors expressed the opinion that this was one of the very best sessions held since the group system was organized. A brief business session was held at 10 o'clock and dinner was served at 12:30 when the principal session of the meeting followed. The Odd Fellows temple on East State street was the meeting place and the splendid dinner was served by the ladies of Rebecca lodge No. 13.

Nearly one hundred bankers were present representing the counties of Adams, Greene, Morgan, Hancock, Pike, Cass, Jersey, Schuyler, Calhoun, Menard, Scott and Brown. In addition to bankers from the district proper the company included Edward F. Goltz of St. Louis, former State Treasurer Edward Mitchell, and members of the "Rainbow party" from Chicago. This party includes representatives of the state bankers association and of the various banks in Chicago and Jacksonville was the first stop on their trip extending from May 12 to 14. They travel in a special car and tomorrow will be at Columbia and on Thursday at Golconda. Three days each, in the two weeks next succeeding, will be spent in like visits and on June 6th they will finish the expedition now planned, at Great Lakes.

Two Sessions Held.

The program arranged for the afternoon session was one of very large interest and possibly the most notable address was that given by Col. George T. Buckingham, formerly of Danville, but now prominent as a Chicago attorney. Col. Buckingham did not announce his theme, but discussed the question of corporations and corporation control. The morning session was presided over, as was that of the afternoon, by E. H. Kinney of Beardstown, chairman of the group, and the business included the report of the secretary and treasurer, J. R. Pearce of Quincy, the report of the standing committee and the appointment of committees.

Served Excellent Menu.

Adjournment was then taken for a half an hour and then dinner was announced, served in the spacious dining room of the temple. Rev. L. H. Davis offered invocation. The menu was as follows:

Fruit Cocktail.
Roast Chicken—Dressing.
Rhubarb Sauce.
New Potatoes. Peas en Cases.
Radishes. Pickles.

Hot Rolls.
Perfection Salad with Wafers.
Ice Cream. Strawberries.
Cheese. Crackers.
Coffee. Cakes.
Salted Peanuts. Cigars.

The service was such that the visitors were very enthusiastic about the arrangements. As the dinner was served the good cheer of the occasion was greatly augmented by Frank F. Winans, a member of the "Rainbow party," and an officer of the Northern Trust Company bank. Mr. Winans came to the center every little while with a rattling good story and in several instances made local applications, one being built around E. E. Crabtree as the imaginary hero. Mr. Winans is not only a story teller but a singer as well and every little while he led the whole company joined in such songs as "Illinois," "Old Black Joe," "There is a Girl in the Heart of Maryland," "When Its Apple Blossom Time in Normandy."

The Rainbow Party.

By the side of each plate on the table was a booklet giving the words of 22 familiar songs. On the front of the cover appeared the seal of Illinois bankers association and on the back appeared the names of the members of the "Rainbow Party" as follows:

S. B. Montgomery, president Illinois Bankers Association; R. L. Crampton, Secretary Illinois Bankers Association; S. E. Bradt, chairman Good Roads committee; Addison Corneau, Asst. Cashier Central Trust Company of Illinois; C. H. Fox, Asst. Secretary Chicago Savings Bank & Trust Co.; Dan Norman, Asst. Cashier Continental & Commercial National Bank; James A. Walker, Corn Exchange National Bank; W. H. Monroe, Asst. Cashier First National Bank; Charles L. Boye, Asst. Cashier Fort Dearborn National Bank; John H. Grier, Merchants Loan & Trust Co.; Schuyler P. Johnson, National City Bank of Chicago; Frank F. Winans, Northern Trust Company Bank; E. H. Reynolds, cashier Peoples Trust & Savings Bank; H. S. Henschen, cashier State Bank of Chicago; George H. Norton, Bolger Mosser & Willaman; W. F. Van Buskirk, Chicago.

When the final course had been served the company adjourned to the lodge room proper and there Mr. Kinney called upon Mr. Frank Elliott who as chairman of the Jacksonville clearing house expressed briefly the pleasure of having group eight meet here and then called upon Dr. F. A. McCarty for a more formal expression on behalf of the Jacksonville bankers. Dr. McCarty referred briefly to what bankers mean to the business world and mentioned the fact that with passing time the bankers have done much, and are doing much to strengthen the conscience on which business operations are conducted.

The response to Dr. McCarty was made by C. E. Bolin of Milton who in a very witty way outlined the changes which have taken place in banking conditions during the past forty years.

Miss Janette Powell then delighted the company with a reading, "Her One Good Time," by Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins Freeman.

The subject of "Farm Credits" had been assigned to John R. Wallace of Clayton, and in his absence the address he had prepared was read by J. R. Moffet of Clayton.

Miss Nathalia Jensen of the Conservatory played a violin solo with much ability. Mrs. Andrew Russell being the piano accompanist.

The chairman introduced Col. Geo. T. Buckingham of Chicago. Col. Buckingham is accustomed to public speaking and is forcible in argument and eloquent to a marked degree. No theme was announced but he discussed the question of corporations and corporation control presenting a big subject in a very short space of time and in a way which made many of his auditors consider the problem in a way somewhat new to them.

How Corporations Increase.

He said that the public had viewed with alarm the increasing number of corporations probably from the fact that there were six when the constitution was adopted and that in recent years the number had grown to over 500,000. He said one trouble was the lack of uniformity of laws in the various states governing corporations and mentioned that in some states it is possible to organize a corporation with certain powers provided however that such corporations do not operate within the state where the charter is granted.

The speaker suggested too that in these latter days more alarm was felt about the size of the corporations than about the number. The two greatest evils in the present corporation situation he thought to be first, watered stocks and the second, incorporate control. Thus far, the people have failed to evolve the fully satisfactory procedure for remedying these evils. As an example of watered stock he referred to one of the railroads entering Jacksonville and rehearsed its financial history. He said that twelve or fifteen years ago it was a well managed road showing satisfactory earnings until it was exploited by Wall Street financiers and the securities increased in such a large way that now to make any showing the road must earn about $3 to where one was necessary in earlier years.

How the Frisco Was Robbed.

Then Col. Buckingham cited the case of the Frisco affairs which he said had recently been made public and he said further that the public statement about this road's finances set forth in cold type would rival a story of piracy or wild west robbery. The various financial gyrations which the Frisco officers went through were related showing that the indebtedness was increased from $22,000 per mile to $70,000. The system followed was to buy up small roads improve them somewhat and then sell the to the Frisco, all for the purpose, the speaker said of making it possible for the officers of the road to reap $3,500,000 of profits.

In suggesting a remedy for these evils Col. Buckingham referred to the banking history of the U. S. and said that the purpose of the national bank act was first to make it certain that a man who started a bank with a capital of $100,000 had that amount of money. Second, to provide that the government should have a supervising power over the bank and third, the enactment of penal statutes making it a crime for a banker to handle the funds entrusted to him except as a trustee.

Bank Rules For Corporations.

Col. Buckingham said he believes that if the same principles which have been used with reference to bank organization and supervision were applied to the corporations that the results would be the same. He said that accords of ethics had grown up aside from the law which made each banker feel that he was simply the trustee of other people's money and that he must act accordingly. He cited the fact that the Chicago Clearing house makes more rigid investigation into the affairs of the member banks and keeps closer tab on their transactions than the government does itself.

Railroad Stocks Must Be Secure.

"I believe" he said "the time will come when these principles which have been operating with reference to banks will apply to corporations and that it will be just as difficult to rob a railroad from the inside as it is to rob a bank from the inside. The time will come when men will feel just as secure in purchasing railroad stocks as they will in purchasing bank stocks. The people are all the time becoming restive and this would be the best antidote for the rising tide of socialism. I believe that one of two things will surely happen and that is that the railroads of the country will be owned by the government or the stocks and bonds of the company will be widely distributed and these stocks and bonds will have a certain stable value. This condition to my mind would be preferable to the government ownership of the roads. There is still another reason why certain stability and value must attach to railroad and other corporation securities and that is because the field of investment for small investors in lands is narrowing and there inevitably must come a larger number of small investors in stocks and securities of that class."

Mrs. Edna Lyman Scott of Seattle, Washington, who is a guest of Jacksonville friends entertained the gathering with two fairy stories charmingly told.

W. F. Van Buskirk of Chicago was the last speaker of the afternoon and presented ably an address on the federal reserve act. Officers were named for the coming year as follows:

The New Officers.

Chairman—J. R. Pearce, Quincy. First vice chairman—R. R. Wallace, Hamilton.

Second vice chairman—H. O. Tunison, White Hall.

Secretary-treasurer—F. T. Jurgens, Petersburg.

Member of executive council—W. S. Reaick, Ashland.

Vice president—John Weber, Barry.

Executive committee for Group 8—One from each county:

Adams—J. R. Moffet, Clayton.

Brown—Charles A. Reid, Mt. Sterling.

Calhoun—E. E. Williams, Hardin.

Cass—F. M. Robertson, Virginia.

Greene—T. N. Rose, White Hall.

Hancock—W. H. Bliss, Dallas.

Jersey—C. G. Reddick, Jerseyville.

Menard—B. F. Marbold, Greenview.

Morgan—M. B. Keplinger, Franklin.

Pike—R. T. Hicks, Pittsfield.

Schuyler—L. H. Yeck, Brownings.

Scott—E. L. Maines, Manchester.

The register showed the names of about 130 persons present. Each person on arriving was given a brass badge together with card giving the name of the wearer. Misses Grace McCarty and Fern Haigh adjusted the badges and wrote the cards as they were given out.

Evening Reception.

At 6:30 last night an informal reception was given by the Jacksonville Clearing House at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Crabtree in honor of the visiting bankers. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree were the various officers of the Jacksonville banks and their wives. The pleasure of the evening was greatly increased by several songs sung by Mrs. Helen Brown Read and by the readings given by Mrs. Edna Lyman Scott of Seattle. Mrs. Read's program included four numbers, "I Will Bring You Daffodils," "The Song of India," "The Spring Song" from the opera "Natrona," and "The Little Grey House in the West." Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard was the accompanist. The visiting bankers found the hospitality of the most generous kind.

AYERS NATIONAL BANK NAMED FOR IMPORTANT DUTY

One of Two Designated in Illinois by Treasury Department to Execute Organization Certificates of Federal Reserve Banks.

Washington dispatches convey the information that the treasury department has made public the list of banks designated to execute the organization certificates of the several reserve banks as required by the federal reserve act. A good deal of local interest attaches to the announcement from that fact that in the eight district, in which Jacksonville is included, the Ayers National bank is the only Illinois institution named. The reserve banks for district No. 8 will be in St. Louis and the five banks designated to execute the organization certificates are:

Arkansas, German National Bank, of Little Rock.

Illinois, Ayers National Bank, of Jacksonville.

Indiana, Second National Bank of New Albany.

Kentucky, National Bank of Kentucky of Louisville.

Tennessee, First National Bank of Memphis.

M. F. Dunlap as president of the Ayers National was notified a few days since that the action would be taken with reference to the bank and was also notified to make no announcement of the fact until after the whole list had been made public in Washington.

Two Illinois Banks Named.

A part of Illinois is included in District No. 7, with the federal reserve bank located in Chicago. One of the five banks designated in that district is the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago. It will thus be seen that out of the total number of sixty banks designated by the treasury department that but two are in Illinois, one of them being the powerful Chicago bank with its capital of $20,000,000 and the other the Ayers National. The recognition thus given the officers of the local bank is something of which they have every reason to be proud, for the action classes them as one of the strongest and best directed banks in the country.

The execution of the certificates will practically complete the incorporation of each federal bank and when they have been filed with the comptroller of currency the election of directors may follow. The board of directors may consist of nine directors, six of whom will be elected by ballot of the subscribing banks, and three will be appointed by the federal reserve board. When such boards have been organized the comptroller will then issue charters authorizing the federal reserve banks to begin business. In order to expedite the incorporation and organization of the reserve bank the secretary of the committee has telegraphed each bank designated asking that a special meeting be called at once for the purpose of passing a resolution authorizing its officers to execute the organization certificate. Arrangements have been made with each of the designated banks to have their representatives meet in the office of the president of the Clearing House Association of each federal reserve city as soon as the resolution mailed to each bank has been passed by its board of directors.

In the meantime the certificate of organization has been prepared by the committee for each federal reserve bank and will be mailed at once to the president of the Clearing House Association in each federal reserve city, to be held by him until the representative of the designated banks can be convened.

In the districts in the East and Middle West the certificates will probably be executed and returned to the committee to be filed with the Comptroller by May 16 or 17 and the Western districts could be received soon after.

COLLEGE HILL CLUB ISSUES

PROGRAM FOR COMING YEAR

Interesting and Epoch Making Books Will Be Reviewed and Current Topics Discussed—Meeting Tuesday With Mrs. R. P. Joy.

Programs for the coming year were distributed to the members of the College Hill club at their concluding 1913-1914 meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. P. Joy. Miss Noyes was hostess of the afternoon and Mrs. M. H. Havenhill was leader. Next year the first meeting will be held with Mrs. Allan Fairbank, October 5th and the last, May 10th, with Mrs. Marion B. Tanner. The program of book reviews is interesting and comprehensive, maintaining well the literary standards adhered to by the College Hill club during its life of twenty-six years, and suggested in the motto from Oliver Wendell Holmes: "Some books are edifices to stand as they are built; some are hewn stones ready to form a part of future edifices; some are quarries from which stones are to be split for shaping and after use."

The subject of study Tuesday afternoon was the republic of China. The position of China in World Politics. "Conditions Favorable and Unfavorable to Her Satisfactory Development," and "China, Her Industrial Future." Mrs. Havenhill had prepared the subject in a thorough manner and the general discussion was heartily entered into. In the course of a pleasant social hour, refreshments were served.

The program of subjects, leaders and hostesses for 1914-1915 follows:

October 5—Inside the Cup—Winston Churchill; Mrs. Allan Fairbank.

October 19—Social Environment and Moral Progress—A. R. Wallace; Mrs. Harker.

November 2—Against the Current—E. A. Steiner; Mrs. Price.

November 16—The Promised Land—Mary Antin; Mrs. C. H. Smith.

Polk Festivals—Mary M. Needham, Mrs. Fairbank.

November 30—The Standard of Living—P. H. Streightoff; Mrs. Putnam.

December 14—Current Topic; Mrs. Gates.

January 4—Anniversary meeting.

January 18—Jean Christophe—Roland Romain; Mrs. Nelson.

February 1—Panama Canal—John Barrett; Mrs. Layton.

Panama Exposition; Mrs. Kuechler.

February 15—The Civic Theatre—Percy MacKaye; Mrs. Havenhill.

March 1—The Business of Being a Woman—Ida Tarbell; Mrs. Lane.

March 15—Woman's Work in Municipal Affairs; Mrs. Brown.

March 29—Laws of the State as They Affect Women; Miss Noyes.

April 12—Recent developments in China; Mrs. Crouch.

The Wine Press—Alfred Noyes; Mrs. Joy.

April 26—Book Review; Miss Tanner.

May 10—Current Topic; Mrs. Tanner.

The active members of the club are Mrs. William Finley Brown, Mrs. E. L. Crouch, Mrs. J. C. Fairbank, Mrs. S. Allan Fairbank, Mrs. R. A. Gates, Mrs. J. R. Harker, Mrs. H. M. Havenhill, Mrs. R. P. Joy, Mrs. O. H. Kuechler, Mrs. J. W. Lane, Mrs. Malinda E. Layton, Mrs. Robert S. Nelson, Miss Noyes, Mrs. George H. Putnam, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. Marion B. Tanner and Miss Anna Tanner. The visiting members are Mrs. Gailley, Mrs. McLaughlin and Miss Georgia Fairbank and the honorary members; Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. T. P. Carter, Miss Dewey, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Henne, Mrs. Hunoon, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. Lang, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Mary T. Post, Mrs. R. O. AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a story hour at the public library to which all children from all the grades are invited. The stories will be told by older children who in the telling can give to the other children a part of the joy they themselves have felt in the stories. This stimulates an enjoyment in the best stories and books and helps the children acquire an ease in self expression. Their interest shown since the one story hour of this kind held two weeks ago may warrant the continuing of these story hours through the summer.

In the case of Effie May McMurphy vs. Percy McMurphy. Divorce. Proof of publication and mailing of notices. Default of defendant.

In the case of Isabelle D. Woodman et al vs. Lillian W. King et al. Bill. Evidence in case concluded. Jury returns following verdict: "We, the jury find the paper in evidence purporting to be the last will and testament of James T. King, deceased, is not the last will and testament of James T. King, deceased."

In this case the defense offered practically no opposition and no witnesses were placed on the stand by them. From the evidence produced by the complainants it was made clear to the jury that because of the large indebtedness against the estate that it was impossible to carry out the provisions of the will as related to certain trusts, especially as affecting the minor heirs. Neither Mrs. Woodman nor Mrs. King appeared in the trial.

COMMON LAW.

??? ARE YOU AWARE IF YOU SHOULD DIE WITHOUT A WILL

That your real estate might be tied up so that none of it could be improved, sold or even advantageously leased, without expensive litigation, until your youngest heir became of age?

That if any part of your estate, real or personal, should descend to an infant or incompetent, it could not be sold or divided without administration or perhaps special legal proceedings?

That even if all your heirs were of age, a partition suit might be necessary to determine the rights of your heirs, that in connection with such suit there might be trials, appeals and retrials, entailing heavy expense, all of which would be paid out of your estate in addition to the fees of the administrator, etc?

That an administrator would have to sell your personal property, that he would have no discretion in the premises, no matter how great the sacrifice?

Who but yourself would be to blame if your estate should be tied up and perhaps litigated?

A will properly drawn will protect your heirs and your estate.
Make a will and name this company as executor and trustee.

BOULEVARD LIGHTS DESIRABLE

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night the Retail Merchants department was authorized to hold a meeting at an early date with the purpose in view of starting a movement to install boulevard lamps in the business district. The hope is that some uniform action can be agreed upon whereby, without any legal formalities, the property owners may divide the expense of providing a cable and lamps, the city to furnish the current after the equipment has been installed. This plan has been followed in a number of cities with very satisfactory results. The estimated cost of construction is about $1 per lineal foot. The experience in other cities has been that when once the work has been inaugurated that property owners become enthusiastic for the boulevard lamps and many streets are equipped with them.

HOW THE BANKER HELPS.

Jacksonville entertained a notable company of men yesterday, officers of a large number of the banks located in twelve counties of this section of the state. The coming of these business men had not been loudly heralded and no special arrangements were made for their reception or entertainment except by the local bankers. They came, moreover, not for entertainment, but for the consideration of questions important in the conduct of their business and for the promotion of good feeling among the institutions which they represent.

People sometimes forget how vastly important the banker is to the community. When we have money we give it to the banker to take care of and when we are without funds we apply to him to help bridge over the period until our finances are in better condition. The time was when the average man looked upon the banker as something of a "Shylock", a money-lender ready to take advantage of every opportunity for personal gain. That time, however, has long since passed and the business man now looks upon the banker as his good friend and adviser.

Bankers come into more intimate relations with their customers than most business men and in only rare instances have they been found unworthy of the confidence reposed in them or ready to violate their trust. In recent years, too, bankers have come to a realization that their business is so wide in its scope that it is a part of their duty to help build up the general prosperity of the communities in which they reside. Thus we find that Illinois bankers today are actively interested in the good roads movement and in questions of soil improvement and farm management. They may have some personal interests involved in these things, but that is by no means their only reason for spending their time and money in striving to bring to a proper solution these and other important problems.

AN HONOR FOR JACKSONVILLE.

The fact that the treasury department has designated the Ayes National Bank as one of the five banks in this district to execute organization certificates for the federal reserve bank, is a distinct compliment to the Jacksonville institution and therefore to this city. The Ayes National is the only Illinois bank named in the eighth district and one of the Chicago banks is the only one named for the Seventh district. It is a fact that Jacksonville bankers have for many years had statewide reputations and some of them, evidently, are known nationally as well.

THE UTILITY FRANCHISE.

And it now looks as if the long talked of utility franchises were to be put up to a vote of the people. All three franchises have been given a first reading by the council and will be given a second reading the coming week. If the Railway and Light Co. then signifies its acceptance of these ordinances they will be put to a vote of the people. The ordinances provide for dollar gas and eight cent electricity, along with a great many other particulars. The documents are so voluminous that without long and serious study, one cannot speak with confidence as to their strong or weak points, but certain it is that it is desirable to get franchises in some form before the people for action.

CONTROLLING CORPORATIONS.

The big question of corporation control sounded simply enough as Col. Buckingham's forceful address to group of eight bankers. Col. Buckingham believes that watered stock and intercorporate control would both disappear and that stocks would take on such stable value that any investor might safely buy them—if the government would supervise the management of corporations just as it manages banks. To accomplish this thing, which the speaker pointed out as wholly feasible, would he said, be an answer to the rising spirit of Socialism.

PROMINENT BANKERS ON PROGRAMME.

Decatur, Ill., May 12.—Several hundred well known bankers and financiers were in attendance here today when the twenty-second annual convention of the Alabama Bankers' Association was called to order by President Michael Coffey of Montgomery. THE CAR THAT STAYS NEW Lesser-built cars may look as well, may run as well when new, but when others grow noisy, Reo the Fifth will stay silent. It will save you hundreds of dollars in the years to come in troubles, repairs and upkeep.

OUR EXTRA CARE.

Reo the Fifth, built by R. E. Olds, is based on 27 years of experience. It marks our final conception of what a car should be.

It is built for the future—for what legions of users will say of us after five years.

We spend six weeks in building each car. And we add one-fourth to what the car would cost if built by other standards.

Each driving part is made one-half stronger than necessary. Each is tested to meet the requirements of a 50-horse-power engine.

OTHER TESTS

All steel is made to formula and each lot is analyzed twice. Gears are tested for 75,000 pounds per tooth. Springs are tested for 100,000 vibrations. Engines get five long and radical tests, and the tested engines are taken apart and inspected.

We use a clutch—to prevent gear clashing—which costs twice what others cost. We use 15 roller bearings, and 139 drop forgings. We use over-size tires.

Then the cars are built slowly and carefully. Parts are fitted exactly. There are countless tests and inspections.

$220 SAVED.

Reo the Fifth, with electric starter, used to cost $1,395. Our latest model—the handsomest car that ever went from this factory—costs $1,175 equipped, f. o. b. factory.

We have saved this largely by confining our output for years to this single chassis. Now all the special machinery for it has been charged against previous output, and this item comes off from our price.

This car is for men who want to save trouble, save upkeep, save repairs. It is for men who want years of perfect service. No other car in this class is built anywhere near like this.

Come judge this car by what you find inside.

ERUPTION ON ANKLE GREAT SUFFERING

Many Nights Did Not Sleep. Burned All the Time. Wore Bandage Night and Day. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Now Well.

Kingsville, Mo.—"My trouble began eighteen years ago. Nearly half of the time there were running sores around my ankle; sometimes it would be two years at a time before they were healed. There were many nights I did not sleep because of the great suffering. The sores were deep running ones and so sore that I could not bear for anything to touch them. They would burn all the time and sting like a lot of bees were confined around my ankle. I could not bear to scratch it. It was always so sensitive to the touch. I could not let my clothes touch it. The skin was very red. I made what I called a cap out of white felt, blotting paper and soft white cloth to hold it in shape. This I wore night and day.

"I tried many remedies for most of the eighteen years with no effect. Last summer when my ankle had been sore for over a year and much worse than ever before I sent for some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It would itch and burn, besides a great hurting that I think tongue could never explain. The very first time I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment I gained relief; they relieved the pain right then. It was three months from the time I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment until the sores were entirely healed. I have not been troubled since." (Signed) Mrs. Charles E. Brooke, Oct. 22, 1912.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation. At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

"Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitches of the limbs and so on. Although in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradford Regulator Co., 506 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

TRED, SWEATY, CALLOUSED FEET AND CORNS.

"Ah! Boys,
'Tiz' is the thing!"

People who are forced to stand on their feet all day know what sore, tender, sweaty, burning feet mean. They use "TIZ" and "TIZ" cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. "TIZ" is the only remedy in the world that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet and cause tender, sore, tired, aching feet. It instantly stops the pain in corns, callouses and bunions. It's simply glorious. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel after using "TIZ." You'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't tighten and hurt your feet.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now from any druggist, department or general store. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents.

NOYES WRITES OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LETTER IS READ BEFORE KANSAS NEWSPAPER CONFERENCE.

President Frank B. Noyes of the A. P. Gives His Views on World's Greatest News Gathering Organization—Refutes Statements Made by Mr. Irwin in Harper's Weekly.

Lawrence, Kans., May 12.—A letter from Frank B. Noyes, of the Washington (D. C.) Evening Star, president of The Associated Press, who had been invited to address the Kansas Newspaper conference, was read before that organization at the University of Kansas here today. The letter was as follows:

Washington, May 7, 1914.

Mr. Merle Thorpe,
University of Kansas,
Lawrence, Kans.

Dear Mr. Thorpe:

It is a matter of sincere regret to me that I cannot be present at what I am sure will prove to be a most interesting and profitable conference.

You ask me, inasmuch as I cannot be with you in person, to write you my views on the question you are to discuss today and this I am glad to do though I am not at all sure that I correctly understand the meaning of the question.

As you give it to me it is divided into two parts:

1st. To what extent is a member of a press association entitled to a monopoly of news in community?

My answer to this is that no member of any press association can under any conceivable set of conditions be "entitled" to a monopoly of news in a community.

The question answers itself. As a matter of fact no such monopoly exists and as an equal matter of fact no such monopoly could exist.

The news of the world like the news of the vicinity is open to all. It is utterly impossible to monopolize it.

If the question is intended to read "To what extent is a member of a press association entitled to a monopoly in a community of news gathered by the association of which it is a member?" a different question is presented.

I can only deal with this as an individual who took part in the formation of the Associated Press (the present organization).

Our desire was to form a co-operative association of representatives of newspapers that should be the agency by which we could exchange news with each other and jointly collect news for our common use.

We conceive that we have an entire right morally and legally to do this, just as much right as a paper in Philadelphia, a paper in Chicago, and a paper in Washington have a right to employ Mr. Richard Harding Davis to go to Vera Cruz and send dispatches for their joint use.

It is for us to decide, in our view, whether we will enlarge our group by the admission of new members—as a matter of fact our present membership is very much larger than when we organized in 1900 though it now has only about one-third the daily newspapers in the country represented in its membership.

We have provided a method by which new members may be elected.

My own view—and I have consistently acted on that view—is that a member should be elected when it is to the benefit of the association generally.

This does not at all mean that I would admit every applicant. We want our members individually to be strong and solvent. It does not strengthen or benefit the organization to elect another member in a field that will not support another paper.

I have also repeatedly refused to vote for an applicant for membership when I thought that his admission would tend to break down a competing news service.

I see by your program that Mr. Irwin is to speak on this subject. I greatly regret that I will not have the pleasure of hearing him—only for the purpose of correcting some of his misapprehensions as shown in a recent article that appeared in Harper's Weekly.

I am sure, however, that Mr. Irwin will forgive me if I take this opportunity of pointing out to him where he is in error—at least from my point of view.

First—The success that was made of the Associated Press of Illinois under the leadership of Victor F. Lawson and Melville E. Stone was not at all due to any marked superiority in news gathering.

It was due to a determination that so far as the members of that association were concerned their news service should not be controlled by a private ownership—that it should in fact be gathered for and by the newspapers and controlled by them and non-profit making and this is true of the present organization and is its basic principle.

Second—Mr. Irwin states that most of the members of the Associated Press hold what is known as "rights of protest." He is mistaken—only a small fraction of the members hold such rights.

Third—Mr. Irwin falls into a not surprising error, though it is rather surprising that writing as a supposed expert he should base an indictment on that error by asserting that the bond vote has controlled the election of the Board of Directors—as he picturesquely put it "the old crowd hold absolute and perpetual control. Nothing has even so much as shaken that control."

Very picturesque and very untrue. I suppose that I am in a position to know as much about the affairs of the Associated Press as Mr. Irwin.

My belief is that the result of no election would have been different if the bond vote had been entirely eliminated.

This is because no issue has been presented where the interests of the more important papers who carry the burdens of the assessments have come into conflict with the smaller papers.

As a matter of fact when there have been contested elections the bond vote has been split up just as the membership vote has.

At the annual meeting of the Association held on April 21st, because of this assertion by Mr. Irwin, I requested (as I had been renominated as a director) that a report be made by the teller of the vote by membership, excluding the bond vote as if it was true that I was not the choice of the membership and was maintained in office by the bond vote when no issue existed between the larger and smaller papers I should be given food for serious thought.

The report of the balloting was as follows, arranged according to the membership vote:

Membership	Bond	Total
Frank B. Noyes	400	3376
W. L. McLean	369	3462
Adolph S. Ochs	294	2653
W. Y. Morgan	287	2415
A. C. Weiss	273	3312
C. D. Morris	166	1669
A. C. Kessinger	113	466
Total members voting	461

The first five named were elected and, as will be seen, the result would have been the same had there been no bond vote.

For myself I may say that I can see no evidence in receiving 400 out of 461 votes cast that the will of the majority is being trampled in the dust by the bond holders.

It is significant also of the width and depth of Mr. Irwin's error in this matter that Mr. Weiss of Duluth who was re-elected is not a bond holder at all and neither is Mr. Morgan of Hutchinson, Kansas, who was elected for his first term.

I will leave to the representations of the other news services the heavy task of proving to you that The Associated Press has no monopoly of the news.

Coming to the second question "Should not the competitor of such a publisher have the right to demand and receive the same news service at a reasonable cost and with the privilege of having the first cost to him rebated over a term of years?"

I do not know what is meant by "having the privilege of having the first cost to him rebated over a term of years" and so cannot attempt an answer.

As to the first part of the question I think that a competitor has as much right to demand and receive the same news service as he would to demand and receive the use of the other paper's presses, composing room, editors, reporters, and every other facility.

Just as much right and no more. And that is absolutely no right at all.

Very Sincerely,
Frank B. Noyes.

VILLARD OF NEW YORK EVENING POST ADDRESSES CONFERENCE

Deals Particularly With Allegations to the Effect That Newspapers and Agencies Suppress News.

Lawrence, Kansas, May 12.—Oswald G. Villard, of the New York Evening Post, addressed today the Kansas Newspaper Conference at the University of Kansas. He dealt particularly with the allegations coming from one quarter or another to the effect that newspapers and news agencies suppressed news.

"If one could believe all that one heard," he said, "a true picture of the heads of the press would portray them perpetually behind the arras arranging some plot or other. Men who scent wholesale conspiracies in other individuals usually wind up in the observation wards of our hospitals, but your next door neighbor is privileged to believe in day and night conspiracies of the press without fear of having his sanity questioned. Indeed, and so we hear of agreements among newspapers to ignore this happening, to suppress that and to vilify this or that defender of the rights of the people. In New York City, so deep are the clefs between the various newspapers, that you could never possibly get their heads to sit down around a table, much less break bread together."

"Although the law has compelled us of the metropolitan press to print the names of all the stockholders and bondholders for a year past, it did not surprise me to read an article in a current magazine by a distinguished citizen of Indiana to the effect that newspapers ought to be compelled to tell the influences behind them. I have so often heard this rumor that I have mortgaged myself to Wall Street, with the name and address of the banker. Not that I should throw his private books open to a Bristol or a LaFollette, could a New York editor hope to down this entertaining fiction. He would only hear that his books were doctored, or that he was hiding behind somebody else's skirts, or that it was the point of view of the men he associated with that really did the mischief—so discredited are newspaper managers with certain sections of the people and certain crosses—very cross—sections of the politicians."

"If you think I exaggerate, please bear in mind the bitter attacks on The Associated Press the present winter has witnessed. It has been assailed as a monopoly and on one forum after another attacked as an organized conspiracy to suppress every happening that affects progress or radicalism—with capital P and R. Socialists, labor men and Progressives alike denounce it, because it does not 'carry' their propaganda. Negroes criticize it because it brings out of the South news only of their crimes, and never of their honorable achievements. Some Congressmen never fail to berate it when their other hobbies are for the moment exhausted.

"Curiously enough, the bona-fide malefactors of great wealth equally denounce it as an association controlled by the mob, and, therefore, fearing to tell the truth about them. At least this was the excuse offered by a bribe giver who thought he was buying some New York newspapers for a Trust; he merely wished to secure justice for his client, to get their side of a famous case into print—all this when the other side to the controversy was protesting that The Associated Press was being sold out to the Trust. With The Associated Press it is truly a case of being damned if you do and damned if you don't. It is berated by Catholics for being subsidized by Protestants at the moment that anti-Catholics are sure that they have convincing proof that the head of The Associated Press draws a post-office order for $263.75 a month from the Pope in Rome.

"No amount of iteration seems to make anybody understand that if there are grave defects in the Associated Press, the fault lies with the 895 newspapers which comprise its membership; that it is co-operative organization, which makes no money profits, and is Argus-eyed in that each newspaper is watching the service, ready to make the telephone bells tingle if a happening is overlooked or anything improper is put over the wires; that there are hundreds of honest newspaper men in The Associated Press who would as soon sell their wives and children as to knowingly let anyone use the service to grind an axe or feather his nest.

"It all avails not; the answer is: You can tell by the trend of it that it is capitalistic—as if there were not every shade of opinion in The Associated Press. Its very president is, I am told, a Socialist, at least in theory—but of what use is that? Every man with a propaganda to further is convinced, if his copy is rejected because it is argument or assertion, and not news, that he has tilted against the stone wall of corrupt wealth. I personally have examined one more's nest after another only to find that each was due to ignorance of the technique of the profession or of the facts. Most of them would never have been heard of had the suspicious ones gone to headquarters to inspect the records. It is only in the tenth or one-hundredth case that I have found that there was a genuine error. And it goes without saying that I have yet to learn of a constructive suggestion as to something better to take the place of The Associated Press."

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Stone workers in Germany have a union membership of 76,783.

Telegraphers on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad have received a wage increase.

State Labor Commissioner Cunningham of Michigan is urging the establishment of county employment bureaus.

The Arkansas Federation of Labor is backing a movement for a new and effective child labor law in that state.

John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers, has been appointed a member of the workmen's compensation commission of New York.

Nine hundred and one new members were initiated into the Order of Railroad Telegraphers during the month of March.

Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill in congress to reduce the hours of service of the 18,000 postal clerks who work at night.

Charles W. Fear of Joplin, Mo., was elected president of the United States Labor Press association at the convention recently held by the association in St. Louis.

The Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' International union plans to establish a large brick yard in El Paso to compete with the firms that employ cheap Mexican labor.

It is officially estimated that the accumulated funds of the world's trade unions amount to more than one hundred million dollars, of which forty million dollars is credited to British unions.

According to a report of the state labor department of New York the total membership of the labor unions in that state on Sept. 30 last was 665,248, of whom 78,522 were women.

Wage increases have been obtained by the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America in agreements recently concluded in Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Peoria and Danville, Ill.

The supreme court of the United States recently upheld the decision of a lower court, assessing damages to the amount of $45,000 against a California construction company for violating the alien contract labor law in importing Mexicans to work on railroad construction in Arizona.

Prominent labor union officials have been solicited for their opinion on vocational education in a letter sent out by Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, who is chairman of the commission recently appointed by President Wilson, under the provisions of the Smith-Lever law, to investigate and report on vocational education.

Proposals for federal legislation to correct labor market conditions and thus prevent the annual occurrence of unemployment have been made public by the federal industrial relations commission. The proposed legislation would establish a national bureau of labor exchange in connection with the department of labor, with a central office in Washington and branch offices in other cities. The bureau would be given power to establish and conduct free employment offices.

The Wind.

By WALT MASON.

The wind comes singing from the south, as hot as though 'twere fried, suggestive of a furnace mouth, and blazing coal inside. And now the wheat will die the death, the corn will say goodbye, for in that flame and fiery breath all growing things must die. The wind comes nosing from the north, to see what it may see; and when that sort of wind comes forth, I murmur, "Hully chee! 'Twill kill the blossoms on the trees, the garden sass must go; when nature trots out such a breeze, the poor man has no show. The wind comes wallowing from the east, and floods will soon appear; I hoped to see my store increased in goodly shape this year, but endless rains will spoil the oats, and drown the geese and ducks, and give the mildew to the goats, and I'll lose my bucks." Thus speaks the kicker, and his wail is rising every day; he's sure that everything will fail, that grief is on the way. If he were farming Canaan's land, with milk and honey near, he still would kick to beat the band, and shed the briny tear.

KANSAS DRUGGISTS IN SESSION.

Hutchinson, Kans., May 12.—Several hundred druggists were present here today at the opening of the annual convention of the Kansas Pharmaceutical Association. President C. C. Reed of Salina presided at the opening session this morning and Mayor Fred W. Cook greeted the visitors. An address by Thomas H. Polts of New York, secretary of the National Association of Retail Druggists, was the feature of the afternoon session.

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN.

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite rundown in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold, quickly and building up her strength besides. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

tributing manager of the Ford Manufacturing establishment, visited the local agent, C. N. Priest, yesterday.
He said that in one day last February the factory turned out sixteen hundred machines.

Abner King of the C. N. Priest garage, drove Dr. Becker to Chapin yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Redshaw of the vicinity of Riggs, were in the city yesterday, coming in their Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Young drove up to the city yesterday from Winchester in their Ford car.

James B. Davis, wife, son and Miss Howell journey from Scott county to the city yesterday in their

W. E. McCurley and family were visitors from Murrayville precinct, coming yesterday in their Oakland car.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jewsbury of the region of Markham journey to the city yesterday in their Chalmers-Detroit car.

Harvey Scott of the west part of the county came to the city yesterday in his Mitchell 6 car.

D. W. Krear of Pisgah visited the city yesterday making the trip in his Ford car.

Mr. Shutt of Waverly made a trip

CALDWELL LIKELY TO LEAD PITCHERS IN BATTING THIS YEAR.

icans is winning fame as a heavy hitter, which is something unusual for a pitcher. Caldwell shows every sign of finishing the season with the record of being the leading slugger in the twirling ranks.

FOR HYGIENE AND PUBLIC BATHS.

Newark, N. J., May 12.—Municipal officials and other delegations representing a number of the leading cities of the United States and Canada came to Newark today to attend the convention of the American Association for Promoting Hygiene and Public Baths. An attractive program of papers and addresses has been prepared for the meeting, which will continue in session three days.

IN SESSION AT ATLANTIC CITY.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—Atlantic City is entertaining for two days the annual convention of the New Jersey State council of the Knights of Columbus. Seventy-local councils, with approximately 18, 000 members, were represented at the opening of the session this morning. The annual reports and the election of officers will constitute the principal business of the convention.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

In his first deep-off away from home Ed Walsh demonstrated that he was not a "big" pitcher to travel before a salary of $20,000 a week.
Monday the Sox stopped off at Pittsburgh to engage the Pirates in an exhibition game. The Big Moose mounted the slab for four innings, and was unhindered as he never was before in his professional career. The corsairs touched him up for eleven hits for seven runs before Callahan sent Faber to the rescue, the latter holding the National leaders unless the rest of the journey. Walsh's showing has filled the Sox camp with deep gloom, as it was hoped that the big fellow had side-tracked the jinx.

The Federal league may be "shy"
on baseball stars, but there is nothing short in the bankrolls of the magnates, especially so in the west, owned by Otto Stietel and his Stoufed partners. Starting on their first swing around the circuit the St. Louis Federal team is accompanied by four well-known writers, and as newspaper sharpshooters are as exacting as the most temperamental of baseball stars, the added expense of Mr. Stietel is no small matter.

The old Gowanus baseball home of the Trolley Dodgers was rededicated Monday by Ward's Federals amid the unfurling of flags and the noise of brass bands. Over 15,000 of the faithful watched the "great"
Cannizz outpitch the "great" Tom Seaton, and win, 2-0.

Rumor has Ty Cobb again fishing for a berth in the Chifeds. According to the latest market woman story, the Georgia club let it be known to a chosen few of Mordecai Brown's players that his contract with Detroit contained the illegal ten-day and reserve clause, and also that he wants to play in Chicago. Tyrus informed his friends so that yarn spins, but his salary this season with Detroit is $17,000, but that if Joe Tinker will present him with a contract calling for $25,000 a year he is ready and willing to loop the loop into the outlaw camp. He says he is in the game for all the money he can get, and the manager offering the greatest wage will be permitted to shake his tree. But he would prefer Manager Joe Tinker to do the shaking.

President Thomas of the Cubs announces that there is no truth in the story that Hank O'Day is to be relieved of his managerial duties. Mul-rphy's successor appears reasonable when he says the poor showing of the team is no reflection upon the ability of Hank. The players are not hitting them out, he says, and at the same time he hints that the pitching staff is lacking in ability. Mr. Thomas is so much different from C. W. M. that he is entitled to encouragement.

Jerome D. Travers and Charles E.
Evans, Jr., American amateur golf champions, are creating a sensation in England, where they are playing exhibition games in preparation for the coming amateur championship contests.

The local race course these days is a veritable hive of industry in the early morning and just preceding the dropping of the evening shades. The track is alive with blooded horse-flesh being worked into racing condition for the on-coming season's trotting and pacing events. Some of the younger stock (2-years) undergoing training are very likely looking juvenile, and their mentors are expecting much from them when the bugle calls them into action. One of the handsomest colts at the south side course is owned by George Wheeler and is being schooled by Nate Purvine. Purvine has many other good horses in his barn. Clark Green has a string of six, all in excellent condition, and Phil Mack, a new-comer, has about the same number in charge, all going along at a nice clip. Newt Dunham has a promising 'un in training and big things are expected of it at some of the local matinees.

Quartered at Churchill Downs,
Louisville, is a handy two-year-old,
Star Shooter, the get of the famous old Star Shoot. Monday it was entered in the second race, a one-half mile dash for juniors, and the slate-makers attempted to take liberties with it, laying almost 5 to 1 against the colt's chances. Like it illustrious dad, it was not to be denied, going under the wire a winner head up and mouth open in :48.25.

Wade Killifer of Minneapolis, who was beamed on Sunday, is more seriously injured than it was supposed at that time. Latest reports from that city state he will be out of the game for some time.

A claim has been made that the recent world tour has "staled off"
the players who made that famous trip;
also, that as

STOCK EXCHANGE REVERTS TO STATE OF ABNORMAL DULLNESS

Market Rules Slightly Lower Most of the Day on Account of the Absence of Demand.

New York, May 12.—Interest in speculation died away today and the stock exchange reverted to the state of abnormal dullness which prevailed last week. The level of prices was barely disturbed. In one hour only 6,500 shares were dealt in. The market ruled slightly lower most of the day, on account of the absence of demand, but there was no pressure to sell. Good crop prospects and the expectation of an early decision in the freight rate cases are strong factors on the conservative side. Dealings for foreign account were about 6,000 shares.

Harvest, which has been in demand for the last week made a further gain. Missouri Pacific was under pressure at times, falling within a fraction of its recent low level. Foreign exchange rates, which yesterday touched the highest figure in four years held up firmly today.

Cables mounted to a new high market at 488.50.

The supply of gold bars here being exhausted, the question of further exports of the metal in the immediate future depends on whether foreign bidders are willing to pay premiums to make it profitable to ship coin.

Minneapolis Grain Market

Minneapolis, May 12.—Wheat opened slightly weaker here today, mostly on reports of more favorable weather conditions in the northwest. The market however, was so extremely dull that the firmer cables and lighter receipts had but little effect.

Kansas City Markets.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 11.—There was an active market on young cattle last week, at prices 25 to 35 cents above the previous week. The gain was well maintained to the end of the week, and prices are called steady today, receipts 8,000 head. But there is a weak undertone to trade, and astute dealers claim they can see a break in stockers at 1 feeders coming, and predict 75 cents lower prices within the next 10 days or two weeks. A choice lot of panhandle yearlings sold last week at $8.50, averaging 613 pounds, and quite a number of cattle sold at $8.00 to $8.35, bulk of the stockers and feeders $7.10 to $8.00. Asked how buyers of these cattle were going to come out on them, an old dealer said, "They will run them on grass this summer and the gain in weight will bring the cost down around $6.50 this fall, not allowing anything for pasture. If the cattle are appraised at anything above that price, it will represent what they get for their pasture. A bumper crop this season will mean high prices for feeders this fall, and they will have secured good returns for their grass." An Ottumwa, Iowa, man bought 130 springers here last week, and expects to raise 100 calves from them this summer; he believes there is money in raising his own stock cattle. A northwest Missouri man secured two car loads of this cows last week at a cost of $5.00 per hundred, not so old but that they had a full set of teeth, and they were considered a good bargain. Supplied figures at the markets appear to justify higher prices for beef cattle, but traders do not expect much rise. The whole list is selling close together now, and at record prices for May. Previously, when top eat for May, the market was selling higher than they are now, the great body was selling far below the top, and an advance in prices on top cattle did not mean such a lift as it does now.

KANSAS WHEAT PREDICTION

STAGGERS CHICAGO MARKET

Wheat acreage in Kansas is estimated at 9,000,000 acres—Cash Demand in Corn Only Fair.

Chicago, May 12.—Suggestion of an approach to a nine million acre harvest in Kansas staggered the bulls today in wheat. As a result the market which had started out firm closed weak at 1/2c under last night. Corn finished 1/2c down to 1/2c, oats 1/2c off to a shade advance and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12c.

A widely known crop expert estimated the wheat acreage this season in Kansas at 9,000,000 acres against 8,300,000 the generally accepted previous computation.

Predictions of clearing weather instead of the rains that has been delaying planters brought about increased rural offerings in corn and acted as an offset to bullish advices from Argentina. Cash demand was only fair. In oats, the cutting down of stocks here rendered the May option firm.

Higher prices for hogs tended to lift provisions.

PAVING MATERIAL FOR EAST STATE STREET TO BE ASPHALT

Change From Brick Made at Request of Property Owners—Hearings to Be Held on South Prairie and West Court Streets.

The board of local improvement held an adjourned meeting Tuesday morning with reference to the East State pavement. Therefore the board had adopted a resolution providing for a brick pavement on that street but at the session yesterday this resolution was amended to read asphalt. The petition for asphalt represented about 2,000 feet of frontage and that for creosote block about 600. This left 802 feet of frontage with preferences unexpressed and 147 feet committed to brick.

Those who attended the hearing yesterday were J. Tabor Mathers, Dr. E. Duncan, Dr. Carl E. Black, W. S. Ehnle, Joseph E. Stice and Otto Speith. At a previous meeting a statement in typewritten form was filed indicating the varying preferences of property owners for paving material. Some amendments were made to this list at the meeting yesterday. Dr. J. R. Harker changing the 600 feet of college property from creosote block to asphalt in order to be in accord with the majority view as expressed by the petition. A statement was also filed by the trustees of Passavant hospital setting forth that Dr. Black was acting for the board in the matter of materials.

Ordinance Will Prescribe Asphalt. The situation as now presented is this, the city attorney will prepare the ordinance calling for an asphalt pavement with creosote blocks between the street car company's rails and this measure will then be presented to the council. If the council passes the ordinance the assessment roll will then be spread and the property owners will have their chance for a hearing as to the justice of the assessment in the county court.

Should a majority of the council however be opposed to the payment on account of the material provided for in the ordinance then they have the authority to kill the ordinance. They have no authority to change materials or specifications in any way and they can simply vote for or against the ordinance.

There is always the possibility of an ordinance of this kind dying in the council's session because of the varying views on the merits of paving materials. Under the present plan as followed paving, the city does not pay for intersections and the pavement will be laid without cost to the city but it is also true that the city must maintain the pavement hereafter. It is understood that some members of the council believe that the maintenance cost on asphalt pavement, where traffic is as heavy as that on East State street will be a serious matter in years to come.

However, what the fate of the pavement will be cannot be forecasted but it will appear at an early council session.

Hearing For South Prairie Street. Following the adjournment of the East State street hearing the board of local improvements met and fixed Wednesday May 27th at 10:00 a. m. as the hour for a hearing on a proposed pavement for South Prairie street extending from West State street to Edmond street. A petition has been prepared asking for a tarvin pavement on this street. Should all the efforts which have been made during recent years to pave Prairie street now culminate successfully not only the property owners but the public generally could well be congratulated.

It was also announced that another hearing will soon be held on North East street, the proposal being to pave from East North street to the Wabash railroad. At the former hearing the resolution provided for a tarvin pavement with a sand stone curbing. It is understood that a majority of the property owners prefer a concrete curb and gutter and the new hearing is designed to get a final expression on this subject.

Will Pave West Court Street. Mayor Davis made the glad announcement yesterday that a pavement is in prospect for West Court street from the square to North West street. It is understood that the property owners there are largely favorable to the improvement and that they desire tarvin as the paving material. Certainly no pavement in Jacksonville is in much worse condition than at least part of that on Court street, between the square and West street and traffic along the street has increased greatly with passing years. A hearing is to be called at some early date.

SHILOH.

Miss Celia Lane returned to her home Saturday after a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens and family visited Mr. and Mrs. John Bourne of Literberry Sunday.

Hannah and Walter Young and Maude Haxton took dinner with Ray and Mabel Bourne Sunday.

Edward Patterson and family of Ebenezer were Sunday callers on Ervin Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bourne visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bourne of Jacksonville Sunday.

Dr. Dunlap of Literberry visited our Sunday school Sunday morning. Visitors are welcome always.

Ervin Patterson is done planting corn and has some corn big enough to cultivate.

Mrs. William Bourne and daughters, Estella and Dorothy, and Miss Celia Lane visited Vinson Bourne of Cracker's Bend one day last week.

Rev. H. F. Cusick filled his regular appointment Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mayme Ryan of F. W. Woolworth's and 19c store is detained at home by illness.

300 LICE Or More on One Hen

by no means uncommon. No one would expect to fatten a steer with that number of "ticks" sucking his blood, but many expect to fatten a hen with lice. The old hen to go ahead shelling out eggs while lice and mites are eating her up her very life. We have counted over 2000 lice under a row of ten hens, on a roost board painted the night before with Lee's Lice-Killer. This great killer does double duty—contact kills mites, lice, bedbugs, etc. about the rooster the vapor kills lice on the chickens sitting over it. Put up only in airtight cans.
Size of our 10¢ tin only.

CLOVER LEAF-WEEVIL

Life History—In central Illinois
we have only one annual generation of this insect, as seems to be the rule elsewhere. All through the winter small larvae can be found in the clover field under rubbish on the ground or between the bases of the clover stems. In early spring the few warm days that start the clover on its new growth revive the larvae also, and they begin to mar the fresh clover leaves with little round holes eaten out of the blades of the leaflet.
In the early season of 1907 the first new leaves of red clover began to show March 19, and were already riddled by these larvae March 23, at which date the larvae were common on the ground near the affected plants. In early spring the larvae are of many sizes, with an average of 5 mm. in length, though many are only 2 or 2.5 mm. long, and a few are as long as 7 mm. I have rarely found the beetles in early spring,
and such as were found were either dead or in the last stages of decrepitude, and evidently incapable of doing anything toward the propagation of their kind.

I have not found more than four larval stages—the number given by Riley. The first stage lasts about nine days in the hibernatory. Thus larvae born November 10, molted for the first time November 25. Some of the larvae, born in late autumn, do not moult until the following March or April. For example, one larva was in its first stage April 1; it molted April 8, April 17, and May 4, and spun May 20. The intervals between moults are, however, variable, especially when the weather is unsettled, and the growth of the larvae is consequently interrupted.

The pupal period indoors we found to be 10 to 20 days, as in four days instances.

Early as beetles appear, they do not begin to mate until the last week of August, and nearly all the eggs are laid in September or October.

We have insectary records of oviposition for almost every day of between September 17 and October 26, and almost daily records of hatching from October 9 to November 27. The egg period in autumn is from 23 to 45 days, averaging 29 days; the length of the period depends upon temperature chiefly;
some of the latest eggs, indeed, do not hatch until the following spring.

Out-of-doors we have found eggs as late as November 14, and young larvae as early as October 19. After that date, they soon become common, and can be found at any time during the winter between the bases of the clover stems, as deep as possible, or else on the ground under more or less protection. Many of them succumb to the cold, however.

These winter larvae also are of various sizes. Sixty-five larvae measured November 26 ranged in length from 2.5 mm. to 7.5 mm. with an average of 3.17 mm.

Late in October a few living beetles—more than three months old —occur in the clover field and go into hibernation. Early in the following

HAVE YOU A CHILD?

Many women long for children, but because of some curable physical derangement are deprived of this greatest of all happiness.

The women whose names follow were restored to normal health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write and ask them about it.

"I took your Compound and have a fine, strong baby."—Mrs. JOHN MITCHELL, Massena, N. Y.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine for expectant mothers."—Mrs. A. M. MYERS, Gordonville, Mo.

"I highly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before child-birth, it has done so much for me."—Mrs. E. M. DOERR, R. R. 1, Conshohocken, Pa.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build up my system and have the dearest baby girl in the world."—Mrs. MOSE BLAKELEY, Imperial, Pa.

"I praise the Compound whenever I have a chance. It did so much for me before my little girl was born."—Mrs. E. W. SANDERS, Rowlesburg, W. Va.

"I took your Compound before baby was born and feel I owe my life to it."—Mrs. WYNNE TILLS, Winter Haven, Florida.

HAS FINE FARM IN THE MERRITT NEIGHBORHOOD

Norman Campbell Devotes Special Attention to Hog Raising—Has Tried Both Poland China and Duroc Jersey Breeds.

A man wonderfully well prepared to enjoy life and take advantage of the good things offered as he goes along is Norman Campbell of the vicinity of Merritt. He has a farm of 200 acres of fine land, well located and a home with all that heart could wish and admirably kept and fitted with all that is needed for comfort and happiness.

Like many others, Mr. Campbell does little with cattle for he says he can hardly see any money in feeders or stockers at present prices. A man may make it all right, but when he says from seven to eight cents for his frames there is a deal of risk in putting on the meat at the present prices of corn. Grass is all right, but it takes corn to do the work and that is too valuable, according to Mr. Campbell's judgment. It is hogs that he sees the most profit and of these he has some regular beauties. Like many others he stuck to the far famed Poland-Chinas for a long time, but a few years ago he tried Jersey Duroc Reds and is much pleased. He likes the thoroughbreds and thinks them more prolific and harder. The Poland-Chinas have been bred until they are too small boned and delicate and a different management will have to be undertaken with them if they are to hold their own.

Mr. Campbell doesn't think the Durocs are so slow either in maturing. If one will use ordinary care and judgment they can be marketed at an early age. He sold a lot averaging 236 pounds at nine months old, which is certainly a good record.

He endeavors to have his sows farrow in April and October, which brings him the best results. He has no especially fancy way of feeding or caring for his hogs, but gives them wholesome feed and plenty of it. As soon as the pigs can crack corn he begins to feed them, but leaves the mother to do the weaning, which is generally at two months of age.

Then he makes a slop of bran and shorts with milk and whatever may be wholesome for the youngsters and begins to feed and keeps them going till ready for the market. He doesn't think much of the little individual houses for his brood sows, but prefers a larger building, well located, with a separate apartment for each family. This house should be where the animals may get the sun and benefit of the southern warmth in cold weather.

When it is rather cold Mr. Campbell warms the slop he gives the younger pigs and deems this a matter of some importance. If a pig is to improve and lay on fat for market right along it is necessary to start it right and keep it going without a backset.

Once he crossed a lot of Durocs with Poland Chinas and at twelve months the hogs weighed 308 pounds each. Even with this experience Mr. Campbell prefers the thoroughbred Durocs to any other and the specimens he has on hand certainly speak well for his judgment.

Mr. Campbell's leading crops are corn, wheat and clover and he pays little attention to anything else and as he has had good success in these he sees no reason why he should especially change. For corn he discs the ground first and then plows, not very deep except the first time out of sod, and goes over the ground with a wood drag, which he prefers to a harrow, as the ground is not so apt to stick, get gummy or soggy.

Just as soon as possible he plants while the ground is moist and if the weather is dry he likes to roll the ground, which he thinks retains the moisture. He cultivates first with a disc cultivator, which helps destroy the weeds and doesn't injure the young corn. Following this he goes in with the ordinary cultivator and prefers to cultivate five times, though he doesn't keep it up after the corn is too large for a two horse machine or cultivator.

He believes in shallow cultivation which is generally the doctrine of successful corn growers. He generally plants the best Yellow Dent, though he doesn't think there is no other good corn.

If a man has cattle to feed he believes in the silo and thinks it would be a great saving in every way.

Wheat he raises successfully and prefers the Chamberlain beaded variety. He carefully prepares the ground with plow, harrow, drag or whatever will put it in the best condition and then drills in the wheat.

He changes his land with clover and gets a good stand sowing the seed broadcast in the wheat just as early as possible and going over the field with a harrow. This year he didn't get a chance to follow with the harrow, for it was too wet, but he thinks he will have a good stand of clover anyway, though fears it was some hurt by the last late frost.

Wheat he sows from September 23d on, as soon as possible and gets the best results. He doesn't think much of oats on strong land, as they don't pay as well as other crops.

Mrs. Campbell is a successful chicken raiser and has a fine lot of fowls, from which she sells a lot of eggs.

They have also a small and superb herd of cows, Jersey and grades, which supply a quantity of milk.

MERCHANT ACCUSED OF

WHITE SLAVERY.

Des Moines, Ia., May 12.—The Federal grand jury which convened here today is expected to take up the case of G. H. York, a prominent merchant of the town of Colfax, who was arrested last January on a charge of violating the Mann white slave act. It is alleged by the authorities that York transported Mrs. O. E. Jackson, a dressmaker, from Kansas City to Des Moines for immoral purposes.

WHAT IS A PEST?

Under the appropriate title of an article in the Journal the other day "Many Snakes Killed." I learned that the slaughter of the innocents on a farm not far from here reached the number of fifty. They were principally bull snakes, blue racers, and a species of brown snake (milk snake?) the account goes on to state.

Now the Journal says that the wholesale destruction of such animals is a question it will not discuss. But I infer that the Journal disapproves of the crime—it is nothing more or less, though there be no means of prosecution and punishment of the offender—and I wish to submit my own disapproval in less uncertain terms. It is a question the Journal should discuss, if it is concerned for the economic interests of the farmers, among whom it circulates. The lamentable ignorance and prejudice that still prevails calls for a campaign of enlightenment along that line. The country, sad to say, has not yet arrived at that stage where adequate protection is afforded the beneficial species in any class, though it is rarely backward about providing measures for the repression of other species whose reputations happen to be a little shady. It generally wakes up to the fact only after the effects of its indifference have become irremediable, or after some desirable variety has become extinct.

The decrease in the number of birds in the past few years is appalling. The other day a gentleman, recently from Europe, asked me how it was that there were so few birds—except English sparrows—in this country. To him it seemed incredible that such a broad open country should not swarm with air-fowl, as did the locality where he came from, much older and more densely inhabited than this. I was embarrassed to have to refer him to the insignificant appropriation made by congress to enforce the federal protective measures recently passed, and the flagrantly hostile attitude of certain congressmen, backed by "game-hogs" of several localities. Verily, conservation in this country is an infant, and a puny one at that.

Many things combine to deplete our population of beautiful and beneficial birds. Go out into the country, and where a few years ago you saw plenty of bushes, hedge fences, stake-and-rider fences, now you see wire fences, scanty timber, and almost no patches of undergrowth worth mentioning. The earth is cultivated unsparingly—no spots left where our more retiring (and most beneficial) birds, for the want of our hospitality in the open, can build and make themselves at home. I might also add that many of our native wild flowers are being plowed away to extinction, and natural enemy threatens soon to be a rare delicacy.

Some of these forces are natural and inevitable—others are not. Among the worst, that might be obliterated are, the prevalence of house cats and (in some places) squirrels, the small boy and the indiscriminate air rifle, and the contemptuous indifference of the average farmer and citizen to such things as "bugs and birds."

Yet they all have to "pay for their whistle" sooner or later. Their indifference gives the true specialist new fields for occupation. Of late years a man can't raise a gooseberry bush, let alone anything more extensive, without busying himself with remedial measures for its preservation. The measure one takes in seeing things grow is offset by the constant care and expense required to keep them healthy and productive.

There is so little excuse too for the ignorance of those concerned with such things. Literature—authoritative literature—can be obtained from state and national departments of agriculture for the asking. The duty of keeping one's self informed is anything but a costly or arduous one. But there are still some agriculturists who seem to have a grudge against the sort of research engaged in by "them book-writin' fellers" of the experimental stations. And even the operations and results of the government weather bureau come in for a share of the contempt indulged by them for anything in the way of progress or improvement.

TO DISCUSS THE

LIQUOR LEGISLATION.

Washington, D. C., May 12.—A joint annual convention of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association and the National Distillers' Association met at the New Willard Hotel today for a three days session. National and State legislation affecting the liquor traffic is to be the principal subject of discussion.

NAPLES.

Fine prospects for big wheat crop. Farmers are busy planting corn. Much corn now planted. Fruit, gardens and pastures doing well. But a good shower would do good. River at a fair stage, with boats making regular trips.

Will soon hear the callopie and see approaching the floating theater; also the season is now on for excursions both up and down the river.

May 1st ended the fishing season except with hook and line.

The new walking machine, as it is styled, was unloaded from cars here and assembled and walked from town across the Wabash railroad, to where it is digging a large ditch, south of town, on dry land. This is said to be the second one of its kind built. It is all steel, very strong and powerful and weighs from seventy-five to one hundred tons. It will be at work here one or two months.

The new levee district below town is now nearly complete. The pumping plant, said to be the best on the Illinois river, is working fine.

Cocklebur slough, Calamus and Slim lake are nearly dry and they expect to raise corn on much of the low land this season.

William Simmons and wife visited at their son's home in town.

It is reported Lew Roberts of Valley had both limbs broken and a scalp wound, requiring seventeen stitches and otherwise injured by his team being frightened by a motorcycle and running off a bridge.

Macon Campbell and family visited William Gobbie and wife.

W. B. Pine, wife and baby of Okmulgee, Okla., arrived on boat from St. Louis for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Pine going on to New York on business, while his wife will spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton.

Our public schools will close May 16th.

CHAPIN.

Mr. and Mrs. John Onken have returned from a two months' sojourn in California.

C. S. French, who has been sick for some time, still remains in a serious condition.

Miss Mildred Wright of Murrayville is visiting Mrs. R. R. Bridgman at this writing.

Miss Ruth Senteney, one of Chapin's popular young school teachers, has been engaged to teach the Cysium Moore school the coming term.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edlebrock of Jacksonville spent Sunday with home folks.

Murrl Negernah is confined to his home with the mumps this week.

The Chapin graded school the coming term will be represented by an entire new corps of instructors, excepting Miss Denis, the primary teacher, who has been re-employed.

Dr. J. W. Hairgrove of Jacksonville made a professional call in Chapin Sunday.

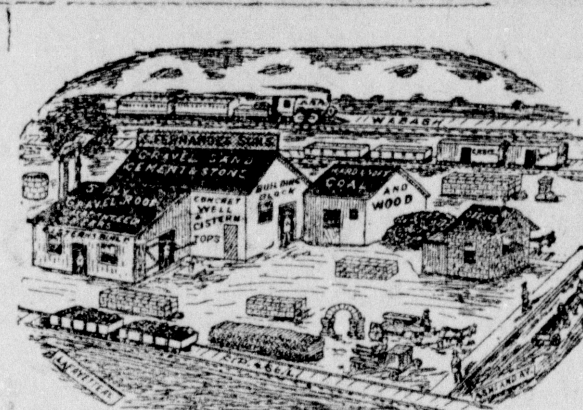

Misses Edith and Mable Robman of Beardstown were guests of Miss Blanche Johnson Saturday.

Miss Ruth Senteney spent Saturday and Sunday in Curran visiting relatives.

Ray Sullins, who has been bracking for the C. B. & Q. for the past two years and who during the re-trenchment was laid off recently, was recalled Friday to resume his former position.

T. H. Stone, contractor and builder, has been awarded the contract to build a house and barn for John Boddy of Markham.

Tarley Johnson of Freeport is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity this week.

MORTUARY

Abbott.

Mrs. J. B. Abbott, other of Mrs. F. A. McCarty of this city, passed away suddenly at Wesley hospital in Chicago Monday. Mrs. Abbott has been in poor health for a year and about three weeks ago went from her home in Mason City to the Chicago hospital for treatment, and it was thought that she was improving and would soon be able to return to her home, and the news of her death came as a shock to her friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mary Jane (Ainsworth) Abbott was born on the old Ainsworth homestead near Chandlerville July 8, 1849 and was married to J. B. Abbott October 10, 1869. They were the parents of four children: R. H. Abbott of Petersburg, E. E. Abbott of Mason City, Ira Abbott of Petersburg and Mrs. F. A. McCarty of this city. These together with the husband and the following brothers and sister survive: J. A. and W. T. Ainsworth and Mrs. C. E. Freeman, all of Mason City. For a number of years the family resided at Natrona and for two years at Delavan, after which they moved to Mason City where they have been highly esteemed residents for over a quarter century. The deceased was one of the most active members of the M. E. church and its various societies, was a prominent member of Madeline chapter, No. 369, Order of Eastern Star of Mason City and was prominent socially and will be missed by a wide circle of warm friends. She will accompany the remains to the funeral home in the city.

Richardson.

Mrs. Nancy Richardson, widow of the late Frank Richardson, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of her brother, John M. Smith in Mt. Sterling, at the age of 78 years. She had been in failing health for a long time.

She was born May 25, 1836 at Glasgow, Scott county, and was married March 18, 1855 to Frank Richardson. For a great many years they resided in Jacksonville and since the death of Mr. Richardson, she had been living with her brother in Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Richardson was a member of the Salvation Army and one of the founders of the local Army in Jacksonville. The 25th anniversary of the organization of the Army was celebrated here last year and Mrs. Richardson was in attendance. She was a woman of deep religious convictions and lived a useful and consecrated life.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Sarah Ater of Concord and a brother, John M. Smith of Mt. Sterling.

The remains were brought from Mt. Sterling to Chapin via the Wabash, and at Chapin were met by Williamson and Cody, undertakers, who took them to the Smith cemetery for services and burial, three miles east and north of Concord. Music was furnished by five singers from the Salvation Army and Capt. Pinkston, of the local Army organization held brief services at 10:30 Tuesday morning. There were many beautiful flowers.

The bearers were Charles Smith, George Smith, Frank Smith, Elwin Smith, Melvin Smith and Ashford Ater, the first five named being nephews of the deceased.

IN A RAILROAD WRECK.

W. T. Reaugh has received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Millon, residing near Halleck, Minn., stating that she, her husband and little daughter, six years old, were on a Great Northern train going to Crookston when a flange of a wheel on the coach in which they were riding broke and let the car off the track. Fortunately there was no grade at the place and the car simply rolled over without a serious wreck. The little girl was rather badly bruised, but was able to say after it was over that she wished they had left her at home. Mr. and Mrs. Millon were somewhat shaken up, but not badly hurt and it is thought the little girl was not badly injured. After the passenger had been released from the overturned car they proceeded in the rest of the train to Crookston. Mr. and Mrs. Millon had planned a trip still farther, but were obliged to give it up and return home thankful the affair was not more disastrous than it was.

FUNERALS

Wilday.

The funeral of John Wilday was conducted from the Methodist church in Arenzville, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. J. W. Murray of Winchester. Music was furnished by Mrs. Edward Shrewsbury, Mrs. A. P. Streuter, W. B. Wood and George Prouditt. Interment was made in the Arenzville cemetery and the bearers were, Edward Houston, Walter Houston, Marquis Weeks, J. A. Weeks, Albert Weeks and B. W. Weeks.

Filson.

The funeral of Leander Filson was conducted at 2:30 Tuesday, from the M. E. church in Concord, Rev. H. J. Floreth officiating, in the presence of a large number of friends.

Music was given by Mrs. L. Bayless, Miss Ella Rentschler, Miss Anna Roach, Ernest Sanders and Roy Abernathy. The beautiful flowers were kindly cared for by Misses Georgia Hamilton, Thesel Webster, Gertrude Bealer and Mrs. Ernest Sanders.

Burial was made in the Concord cemetery and the bearers were Messrs. John Ratcliff, Robert Thompson, Perry Leonard, John Yeck, George and James Deitrich.

Among those who attended the funeral from Jacksonville were Misses Elizabeth Slaughter, Grace Filson, Lillian Smith, Mrs. J. M. Wolfe and Mrs. William Paterson.

Leander Filson was the youngest child of John M. and Margaret Filson. He was born near Concord, Jan. 5, 1843, on the farm now owned by Charles Nickel. On April 18, 1877 he was married to May Addie Udell at Concord and lived for 8 years thereafter, with his father and mother, on their farm one half mile south of Concord. He subsequently purchased the farm adjoining his father on the north, where he resided at the time of his death.

Love was the most prominent characteristic of Mr. Filson's life. His regard and reverence for his parents was beautiful and touching; his affection for his brothers and sisters was deep and grew more tender with passing years; he was sincerely attached to his home and all living things that came under his supervision. He lived a quiet and contented life. His patience, gratitude and tenderness were felt by those who cared for him in his last illness. By Mr. Filson's death his family loses a loving husband, father, and wise counselor, and the neighborhood a kind neighbor and friend.

He is survived by his widow and three children, Elbert Hugh of Jacksonville, Edna Justina and William True at home, also two sisters, Mrs. Martha Ellen Willard of Mt. Zion, Ill., Mrs. Mary Toomey of Arcola, Ill., two brothers, John of Concord and Robert of Hopkins, Mo., also two grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one sister, Mrs. Amanda Olmstead of Arcola and three brothers, William True, Augustus of Concord and Younger of Decatur.

Coverly.

The funeral of Alfred Coverly was conducted privately at 3 o'clock Tuesday from the family residence 754 East Chambers street. Interment was made in Calvary cemetery.

Lynn.

Mrs. V. E. Higgins, Mrs. E. S. Greenleaf, Miss Lucy Barr, S. O. Barr and L. A. Greenleaf were in Carrollton Tuesday to attend the funeral of Charles Lynn, which was held at the residence of his cousin, Luther Lynn, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the Carrollton cemetery. The deceased was a nephew of Mrs. Higgins and cousin of the others who attended the services from this city.

Mr. Lynn was 67 years of age and was well known in Jacksonville. For about twenty years he resided in Chester and several months ago disposed of his interests there and returned to his old home in Carrollton. He was in Jacksonville about two weeks ago while on his way to Chicago and it was while in that city that he died. The deceased was stricken with valvular heart disease last Saturday on the street in Chicago and was taken to St. Luke's hospital, where he died. My Lynn's wife preceded him in death several years ago. He is survived by two brothers, Alex and James Lynn.

MR. RUSSEL MAY BE CANDIDATE.

According to the State Journal, Andrew Russel may seek the republican nomination for state treasurer at the primaries this fall. The State Journal said:

"Friends of former State Treasurer Andrew Russel of Jacksonville, are considering the feasibility of Russel's race for the Republican nomination for state treasurer in the fall primaries. It is understood Mr. Russel himself is entertaining the idea, but has not yet given his friends a decision.

"Rise was given to speculation late last week when former State Treasurer Edward Mitchell of Carbondale passed through this city on his way to Jacksonville to confer with Russel. When Russel was state treasurer, Mitchell was his assistant, and vice versa.

"It is understood that Russel entertains the notion that there could be no reasonable objection to his running again, unless for personal reasons he chose best to stay out of the race."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS IN MONTHLY SESSION

Will Make Effort to Secure Boulevard Lights Around Square—Several New Members Received.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting last evening and various matters of importance were discussed.

The question of boulevard lights was brought up and talked over at some length and finally on motion of T. M. Tomlinson, seconded by Frank Bode it was decided that the committee on public affairs call a meeting of property owners about the square to discuss the matter and see what can be done.

Mr. Wackerle, wire chief of the Radio Wireless Telegraphy club appeared before the meeting to ask funds for the experimental work of the club. It was deemed hardly wise to donate but the directors voted to give the young men moral support and encouragement.

New members were received as follows: Alden Brown, George C. Peck, W. H. Cocking, J. T. Sharpe, Rev. H. H. Neeley, B. G. Graff, W. F. Gillman and William Robinson.

The secretary was instructed to furnish Congressman Rainey with all correspondence relating to the Keokuk Dam Power company.

The transportation committee reported that they had raised $900, and would have no difficulty in securing the remainder of the sum needed for the proposed rate inquiry.

The Retail Merchants' committee reported that they had paid Post O. T. P. A. $450, for the expenses of the recent convention.

The young men's department reported that they would soon have a meeting and would take up the matter of a rest room.

The directors voted to reimburse J. J. Reeve for the sum he had paid for having the telephone poles painted along the Burlington way.

INTERESTING MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Congregational church is fortunate in having among its people as guests, Rev. Henry Fairbank, and wife missionaries in India. This evening there will be at the church a joint missionary meeting under the auspices of the various societies of the church, the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society, the Mission Study Circle, the Mission Band, Mr. and Mrs. Fairbank will be the principal speakers and with their rich fund of experience it is needless to say that what they have to offer will be very interesting.

Following this will be a social time during which light refreshments will be served.

While this is primarily a gathering for the church and congregation, any person whatever will be cordially welcome and all are invited.

The Ingredients Are High Class

In making cakes and pastry for our Delicatessen department, we could use much cheaper materials and still have fairly good results. We have chosen however to make use only of high quality materials and so the Delicatessen pies, cakes, salads, etc. will be found uniformly good.

We believe that the people are appreciating these high quality goods, if judgment can be based on the very liberal patronage given.

JOHN C. O'NEAL VERY ILL AT HIS HOME IN MISSOURI.

Information is That Former Morgan County Resident is Now in Critical Condition.

George W. Moore of Arnold yesterday received a message from Lamar, Mo., telling of the serious illness of John C. O'Neal at his home there. The information is that Mr. O'Neal has been very sick for more than a week past and that his condition is accounted as critical. About three years ago Mr. O'Neal sold his farm in the vicinity of Arnold and purchased one in Missouri and since that time has been living in Lamar. The greater part of his life was spent in this locality and the many here who know him will sincerely regret to know of his illness.

PRaises KANSAS STATE.

Doctor Winship, a Noted Educator, Writes About Us in J. of E.

The Kansas state agricultural college is the subject of a two page article, illustrated with half tones of President Waters and Professor Holton, which leads the contents of the Journal of Education for April 16. The author is Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston, editor of the Journal, and one of the leading educators of America. The magazine is one of two or three most prominent publications of its kind in the country.

Jacksonville people have special interest in the college at Manhattan from the fact that Prof. William A. Lippincott is at the head of the poultry farm department there. That his services are highly thought of is proven by the fact that his salary was twice raised the past year and he was given an assistant in instruction work.

Dr. Winship recently visited the college and addressed the faculty and students. He took great interest in the plant and in the various phases of vocational education represented in the college. In his article he deals with the college in general. He also writes at length of the work in the several divisions.

A part of his article follows: Kansas has about one-fiftieth of the population of the United States, but her agricultural college has one-fourteenth of all the students of agriculture in the agricultural colleges of the country.

There are forty-eight agricultural colleges in the United States, and one-fourth of all the young women studying domestic science and home economics in agricultural colleges are in this agricultural college.

Kansas has been as unfortunate as any state in the union in flood and drought, and yet she leads by a large margin every other of the forty-seven agricultural colleges.

Kansas has had an unreasonable number of knockers at home and abroad; nevertheless, she has attracted men with great visions to Manhattan, records have been broken, and men and women of noble minds have been developed or corrupted until the world looks on in wonder and amazement.

What other agricultural college has had a president turn down a long time contract at $12,000 and stay by his job at half that salary from sheer devotion to an ideal? The days of educational chivalry are still with us—in Kansas at least.

There is cause for professional and educational rejoicing that our schoolmaster president appreciates such a man and has invited him to take his wife and son and go around the world and study everything in agriculture among the nations of the earth. From an acquaintance of nearly every state university and agricultural college in the United States, certainly with all that are famous, or nearly famous, I hazard nothing in saying that Manhattan has one of the two most imposing, most attractive and most perfectly equipped groups of buildings for its purpose in the country.

The location is admirably adapted for an impressive campus. An architect with a vision planned it all. Best of all, the same stone has been used for each of the 21 buildings, and it has been quarried from the grounds, and no more attractive stone could have been imported.

In addition to the more than one hundred acres here, the college has four thousand acres for another experiment station at Fort Hays, nearly two hundred miles out in western Kansas. It was my great good fortune to study with care both the deluxe equipment at Manhattan and the vast plant at Hays with more than 2,000 acres under cultivation for experimental purposes and more than four hundred head of cattle and many sheep and swine, also. This phase of President Waters' opportunity certainly is had by no one else. It is highly educational to have a day at Manhattan and 3,200 boys and girls are enjoying four years of life at which I have merely hinted. Finally, my really great joy is in the fact that President Waters is to give Professor Holton and his associates in education a free hand to use all this equipment in the making of teachers of the science and art of agriculture, animal industry, agronomy, and kindred phases of real life.
